The Terms and Conditions are currently being reviewed and have been temporarily withdrawn from the Web Site.

Please feel free to request the Current T&C from ITA and they will be sent subject to the type of Service Requested or Capacity that we are to act in and provided that they are in accordance with our discussions and negotiations. The T&C's are freely available to you at any time upon YOUR request provided that there is an agreement, whether Verbal OR In Writing between us, or there is the intention to enter into an agreement between us.
